Happy new year

There are so many traditions of celebration the New Year in our school! One of them is a cadet's ball. Cadets always are looking forward to it! Let's read about the celebrations in our school!

1) On December 17 pupils of senior courses of the Tyumen PKU danced a waltz at the Snow cadet's ball. The action took place in Neftyanik club. About two hundred couples became participants of New Year's performance based on the fairy tale of Hans Andersen "The snow queen". Children met Gerda and Kai, the robber and the Gardener, the Snow queen, of course, Father Frost and the Snow Maiden. The vocal ensemble of the Tyumen PKU sang its best songs for audience. Couples danced the polka and the quadrille. "Cadets were seriously prepared for the ball. Several rehearsals were held with all responsibility. I think, the holiday was successful!" – told the colonel Vladimir Anatolyevich Svalov.

2) One more New year's performance in the Tyumen presidential cadet school was held on December 19 for pupils of the fifth course. They watched "The fairy tale of the 21st century". It was based on the fairy tale of Hans Christian Andersen "The snow queen". Tutors and teachers took part in it. Young cadets watched the fairy tale together with his parents and friends.

"Today it was one of the best days because we watched the New Year's fairy tale ". Heroes were very realistic. I liked it very much!" — the cadet of the 5 "E" Efim Shorokhov said.

"I am looking forward to the moment when I'll see my mother and will be able to communicate and dance with my friend Eve. Both of them have come here today." — the cadet 5 "A" Roman Khamatov told.
